

$1997 Secret Online Dating Guide – Only Sold To 15 People Worldwide

Firstly, no bullshit; yes you did read it correctly. Although this is often seen as a bit of a risky topic as many online dating sites have had their reputation tarnished and are commonly seen as prostitute advertising lunatic platforms but I can promise you, used wisely they are a sure fire way to get laid. I have known my friend for 10 years so when he called me up one Thursday night claiming that he had “

Ive got it, ive fucking cracked it”,

my reaction was

“cracked what you crazy bastard?”

He then babbled on about how he had been visiting these seedy dating sites for months, throwing hundreds of dollars to try to find girls that he could fuck. As with most of these sites, nothing happened. He got in touch with hundreds of women only to receive zero responses from any of the girls. Like many of us (maybe you!) he almost gave up..... almost.

So he went on to tell me how he had just had amazing sex with a beautiful blond with bullet nipples in a hotel just minutes from his apartment (WITHOUT paying for it).... I was curious and asked him

“So how did you do it?”

I have to admit, although I was curious, I didn’t believe a word until he turned up the next night with another, this time a brunette.

I mean I’m not the sort of guy that will ever use these types of sites, but I’m still a man and being able to hook up with a girl for one night with no strings attached (that you don’t pay) does seem interesting.

After calming himself down, he eventually gave me the exact steps he’d used to get 6 girls into bed within just 8 days of using it.

But here’s the best part...

It’s freaking easy.

I mean, stupid proof. All it took was a few tweaks to his profile and intro messages and that was it... he was getting consistent responses from women wanting to meet him for sex.

So here it is. His exact system.

The reason I decided to post it here is because I get messages from guys all the time asking me if I’ve ever tried an adult site and if they are real, so makes sense to put it up.

IMPORTANT: This system works... however if you want to learn some advanced techniques that will allow you to sleep with as many women as you like on a daily or weekly basis, then you should check this out.

Let's get into it.

The 4 step system

This simple system should be followed to the letter.

1. Sign up for the free trials

Get an account with the best adult dating sites and use their free trial to snoop around the site. NEVER pay anything upfront, you want to see if the girls are hot and if the accounts seem real.

Also if the ratio of men to women is good. There's no point in adding your profile to a site that has millions of men on there and only a few thousand women. You'll get swallowed up in no time.

Take notes on which site you liked best based on the following:

- Quality of women
- Number of men to women
- Ease of use
- Profile elements (what you can add to enhance your profile i.e videos, multiple photos etc)

2. Setup your profile correctly

Once you've picked the best site from your research, you need to take some time with setting up your profile properly.

This is where most guys fail. They either put crappy nonsense in their profile with outdated pictures or they write sappy things that don't belong on sites like these. Remember women are here for "casual sex" too, don't scare them away with romance rubbish.

Profile elements you need to nail:

- Profile picture – Needs to be updated every month and should be taken within the last month. Nothing saucy, just a profile shot showing you from the waist up so girls can see your face. To get the best responses from girls, you should test to see which photo gets viewed the most and what girls like. I'd recommend uploading several shots to Hot or Not and using the one that gets ranked highest.
- Other pictures – You need a variety of normal shots. Some of you smiling, posing, top off, out with friends etc. DO NOT post any of you naked with a boner. I know this sounds dumb but it's too much, even on these sites. Women like to get warmed up and think about what's under your boxers, if it's just there hanging around like a wet fish, it leaves nothing to the imagination.

- Video – Some sites allow you to post videos. I would advise you create a short 30 second clip of you talking into a webcam. Just say that you're looking to meet up with a “normal” girl who wants to have a bit of fun... nothing freaky ;)
- About you – Be truthful, playful and honest. So say something like “Are you a freak in the bedroom young lady? Then I'd like to hear from you ;) I'm looking for a little fun and to spice things up in the bedroom, be gentle.. I'm new to this.
- Sexual interests – Specify what you want from a girl and what you like to do, don't be too graphic. Think 50 shades of grey when writing this stuff, not sicko porn.

Basically the more NORMAL and REAL you seem on your profile the more women will click on it and contact you, or just reply to your message after seeing it.

The ideal adult dating site profile

These are the parts you NEED to focus on...

The most important areas on your profile.

3. Start contacting girls

When you're happy with your profile. Then you can start contacting girls, here are a few rules to stick to when getting in touch:

Make them WANT to read your message

Play around with subject line and spend some time on it, this is what they will read first and will make them either click/read or delete straight away.

The subject line needs to do the following:

- Make them laugh
- Raise curiosity
- Be compelling

Here's an example of a great subject and a terrible subject:

Bad subject line

Hey cutie, love your tits :)

Good subject line

WARNING: (Cute Guy Alert) – Fancy Meeting Me This Friday?

Which one do you think a girl would click? Obviously the second because it makes them laugh, raises curiosity and compels them to click.

4. Keeping track / meetups

If you really want to get serious with this system and turn it into a “girl-getting machine” then you should keep track of who you’ve contacted, what you said and if you’ve met them.

The best way to do this is with an excel spreadsheet.

The screenshot shows a Google Sheets document with the title "My Girls". The spreadsheet has columns labeled A through G. Column A is "Name", B is "Date", C is "Message", D is "Replied", E is "Number", F is "Hooked Up", and G is "Notes". Row 2 contains data for "Jessica L.", row 3 for "Anne C.", and row 4 for "Chloe S.". The "Notes" column provides additional context about each person.

	A	B	C	D	E	F	G
1	Name	Date	Message	Replied	Number	Hooked Up	Notes
2	Jessica L.	16/10/2012	Yes	Yes	07xxxxxxxx	Yes	Amazing natural beauty, toned body and really dirty. Up for anything.
3	Anne C.	16/10/2012	Yes	No	07xxxxxxxx	No	Looks very pretty, not responsive though.
4	Chloe S.	19/10/2012	Yes	Yes	07xxxxxxxx	No	Flirty over messages, seems very shy to meet up. Needs more work.

Simple spreadsheet for keeping organised with girls.

In the sheet you need the following:

- Name – Name of the girl you contacted
- Date – Date and time you contacted her
- Message – The message you sent her
- Replied – Has she replied?
- Number – Her phone number... you don't want hundreds in your phone right?
- Hooked up – Did you hook up? Could turn into a shag buddy.
- Notes – Is this hot? Is she a freak between the sheets? Keep note of what she's about.

I know this may seem a little strange at first, but trust me it's for organisational purposes and will pay off.

Adult dating sites to avoid

Yep, believe it or not there are some online dating sites you need to stay away from, they will just waste your time.

- Craigslist – It's free which is a bad sign (don't use free dating sites), Gumtree shut down their casual encounter section because it was 90% fake postings... Plus it's full of hookers and funny farm escapees.

How to tell if an account is fake (checklist)

There are a few things you can do to tell if an account is fake or not. This helps to prevent you from wasting time on hookers and accounts that are set up by scammers.

Don't be too concerned though, the top sites get screened constantly by support teams to prevent fake accounts, so they are very few and far between.

Here's how to tell:

- Do they show their face? If they don't then it's because they are either shy or they are working girls who don't want to be recognised.
- Is their English REALLY bad? There's nothing wrong with broken English, but if it says something like "I like good time with hot men.." then you should probably stay away.
- Did they contact you with a very forward message? If they messaged you asking to meet up and seemed very forward, there is a chance it might be fake. Even though the girls on these sites are looking to get laid, they are still reserved because they get TONS of men emailing them every day.

Right then. There you have it folks, that's how to setup a constant stream of "sex dates" with horny chicks. Get started now by clicking here.....
